

Code of Conduct for Education Loans

Maine College of Health Professions has a code of conduct that prohibits conflicts of interest with respect to Title IV, HEA loans or private education loans. The college processes all of its federal education loans through the Federal Direct Loan program. MCHP does not have any preferred lending arrangements with any lenders for any private or alternative loans. Employees of MCHP are prohibited from:

- Entering into any revenue-sharing arrangements with any lenders.
- Receiving gifts from a lender, guarantor, or loan servicers.
- Contracting to receive any financial benefit from any lender.
- Directing borrowers to a particular lender.
- Receiving offers of funds for private loans.
- Call center or financial aid office staffing assistance from lenders.
- Receiving compensation for serving on a lender advisory board.
