

Maine College of Health Professions will undergo a comprehensive evaluation visit March 5 – 8, 2023 by a team representing the New England Commission of Higher Education (formerly the Commission on Institutions of Higher Education of the New England Association of Schools and Colleges, NEASC).

The New England Commission of Higher Education is one of seven accrediting commissions in the United States that provide institutional accreditation on a regional basis. Accreditation is voluntary and applies to the institution as a whole. The Commission, which is recognized by the U.S. Department of Education, accredits approximately 220 institutions in the six-state New England region as well as several American-style institutions overseas.

Maine College of Health Professions has been accredited by the Commission since 1978 and was last reviewed in November of 2013. Its accreditation by the Commission encompasses the entire institution.

For the past year and a half, Maine College of Health Professions has been engaged in a process of self-study, addressing the Commission’s Standards for Accreditation. An evaluation team will visit the institution to gather evidence that the self-study is thorough and accurate. The team will recommend to the Commission a continuing status for the institution. Following a review process, the Commission itself will take the final action.

The public is invited to submit comments regarding the institution to:

Public Comment on Maine College of Health Professions

New England Commission of Higher Education

3 Burlington Woods Drive, Suite 100
